

Section 17.56.070 Construction Limitations:

Upon approval of a Planned Unit Development, construction shall proceed only in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Planning Commission and the County Commissioners and in conformity with any conditions attached by the Commissioners to its approval. Amendments to approved plans and specifications for a Planned Unit Development shall be approved by the County Commission and shown on the approved plans.

The Building Official or any other county department shall not issue any permit for any proposed building, structure, activity or use within the project unless such building, structure, activity or use is in accordance with the approved development plan and any conditions imposed in conjunction with its approval.

The Building Official shall issue a certificate of occupancy for any building or structure upon its completion in accordance with the approved development plan.
